Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I give thee my heart and soul

Entrance Antiphon: *To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God;
turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.*

1st Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11
<If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs and have long life.>

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

- | | | | |
|---|----|--|----|
| 1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. | R. | 2. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. | R. |
| 3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. | R. | | |

2nd Reading: Hebrews 4:4-16
<Let us be confident in approaching the throne of grace.>

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!
The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45
<The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for all.>

Communion Antiphon: Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Dear Parishioners,

I'm thrilled to share that our Transnational Luncheon at St. Mary Magdalen Hall was a wonderful success! It was truly heartwarming to see our parish community come together in such large numbers after so long. The food was incredible – I had the chance to taste delicious dishes from all corners of the globe. The entertainment and traditional dances added a special touch, bringing joy to everyone present. I was also delighted to welcome some of our Holy Family parishioners, who formed a table and joined us in this vibrant celebration. A heartfelt thank you to everyone who contributed, especially the organising committee, for making this event such a triumph!

A gentle reminder: next Wednesday, October 23, we will host the 'Get to know Fr. Stephen' evening at St. Mary Magdalen Hall, from 7 pm to 9 pm. If you haven't RSVP'd yet, please do so soon for catering purposes. I hope many of you can attend to support Fr. Stephen and hear his inspiring story of his journey from South Sudan to Australia, as well as the wonderful work he continues to do with the South Sudanese Chaplaincy.

Last Thursday evening, I had the privilege of celebrating the Graduation Mass at Emmaus College in Vermont South, with over 1,000 people in attendance. It was a joyous occasion, marking the achievements of their Year 12 students. I'm also looking forward to celebrating the graduation Mass at Avila College this coming Monday, October 21.

This weekend, during the 5 pm Mass, I will be giving a special blessing to our long-time parishioners, Joe and Sarina Bonnici, as they celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. A warm welcome to their children, extended family, and friends who will be joining us for this special occasion. Congratulations to Joe and Sarina on reaching such a wonderful milestone – thank you for your witness of love and faith.

As we gather this weekend for the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, the Gospel invites us to reflect on the nature of true greatness in the eyes of God. In Mark's gospel, we see Jesus teaching His disciples that to be great, one must become a servant. This message turns worldly expectations upside down. In our lives, we are often tempted to seek recognition or power, but Jesus reminds us that true greatness is found in humility and service to others. He says, "Whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant," reminding us that leadership in the Kingdom of God is about serving others, not being served.

As we reflect on this, let us ask ourselves how we can be better servants in our families, workplaces, and communities. Let's follow Christ's example, embracing humility and looking for ways to serve those around us, especially the most vulnerable.

With every blessing,

Fr. Justel

This week, you're invited to partner with the Church in Mongolia to help deliver essential services to people who need it most. Lack of access and social stigma mean that some of the most vulnerable people are not getting the support they require.

The House of Mercy will provide a haven for many people, including those affected by homelessness and domestic violence. Without your partnership, people in need will go without the assistance they require.

During World Mission Sunday, we are called to "Invite others to the banquet", and we invite you to share the warmth of God's love with our brothers and sisters who need it most in Mongolia. You can support this work by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/mongolia, or scanning the QR code. Your gift will also assist many other Church programs around the world.
