REFLECTION

Since the Feast of the Lord's Baptism, we have just completed the first week in Ordinary Time. So, the first Sunday is, yes, the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time! Year C in the cycle of gospel readings follows the Gospel of Luke, but for this Second Sunday, the gospel is always taken from John. He provides a transition from the Christmas Cycle. In years A and B, the reading from John is about John the Baptist (again), but this year we are privileged to hear the story of the wedding feast of Cana.

The story of Cana has long been associated with the cluster of Christmas mysteries because, standing early in John's Gospel, it is again a story of revelation about who Jesus is. It is in harmony with the themes of Epiphany and the Lord's baptism. As the final sentence of the gospel says: He let his glory be seen, and his disciples believed in him.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

This story is not about excessive amounts of wine and drinking to excess. Certainly, there is human interest in Mary and Jesus' care for the married couple in their embarrassment. There is a lesson in the intercession of the Virgin Mary before her son. But there is something greater here.

In the gospel of John, signs are a revelation of who Jesus is and what his mission is. In word and action, he has come to proclaim the coming of the Kingdom of God. Often represented in terms of a wedding banquet, the messianic feast is characterised by abundant fine wine. Thus this 'sign' points to the kingdom of heaven and Christ's role in bringing it about. It is this that leads to the disciples' response of faith.

Jesus as the Christ has come to inaugurate a new covenant accomplished in his death and resurrection. The wine of the new covenant replaces the water of purification which represents the old covenant. As John wrote in the prologue to his gospel: though the Law was given through Moses, grace and truth have come through Jesus Christ.
