Dear Parishioners,

Firstly, I want to thank all the parents from Holy Family School who attended the First Communion Parent Information Night last Wednesday evening. It was a wonderful gathering where we had the opportunity to provide essential information and guidance to parents whose children will be receiving their First Holy Communion in a couple of weeks on the Feast of Corpus Christi. Your presence and active participation made the evening truly special, and I am grateful for your commitment to your child's faith formation.

Furthermore, this weekend, we welcome several families as they participate in the 'First Communion Commitment Masses.' These Masses are a significant step in the journey of our young children toward receiving the Holy Eucharist for the first time. We warmly invite all parishioners to join us in prayer and support for parents as they commit to preparing their children for this blessed sacrament. During the Masses, these families will publicly express their dedication to nurturing their children's faith and their commitment to guiding them on their spiritual journey. It will be a beautiful and inspiring occasion for our parish community to witness and offer our collective prayers and blessings. I encourage you to warmly welcome these families and demonstrate our parish's love and support as they embark on this sacred milestone. Your presence and encouragement will undoubtedly strengthen their resolve and reinforce the importance of the Eucharist in our lives.

I welcome you to our special multicultural Mass at 10 am this weekend at Holy Family. Our parish communities at Holy Family and St Mary Magdalen are blessed with a rich diversity of cultures, and this Mass will be a beautiful celebration of our unity in Christ. Together, we will honour and appreciate the various traditions and customs that enrich our community. Following the Mass, we will gather for a delightful luncheon where you can savour the different cuisines lovingly prepared by our talented parishioners.

Let us approach this Pentecost with open hearts, embracing the fire of the Holy Spirit and allowing it to ignite our lives with passion and purpose. May this celebration be a reminder of the transformative power of the Spirit as it fills us with love, unity, and a deep sense of mission. Together, let us continue to build a community that bears witness to the Gospel through our actions, words, and unwavering faith.

I look forward to seeing you all at the multicultural Mass and the joyous luncheon that follows. May the grace of the Holy Spirit guide us on this sacred journey and fill our hearts with abundant blessings.

Warm regards,

Fr Justel

OFFERTORY GIVING CAMPAIGN - 25th & 26th May 2024

Dear Parishioners

Next weekend, we will commence our Offertory Giving Campaign in our parish community, which will run over the next three weeks. Giving generously is a way to deepen our faith and is a vital part of our identity as Christian worshippers. Please pray for our community as we enter into this time of discernment. Our offering is a powerful witness and a personal prayer. You are encouraged to engage prayerfully with the content presented and provided over this time and we look forward to growing and going deeper in our relationship with Christ through this process.

Mount Waverley/Chadstone Inter Church Council - Trinity Sunday

We will welcome visitors from three other churches in our Inter Church Council, namely St. Mary and St. Stephens Anglican Church in High Street Road, Mt Waverley, Glen Waverley Uniting Church in Bogong Ave., Glen Waverley and Christ Our Holy Redeemer Church in East Oakleigh. | 1. Holy Spirit, Lord of Light,
From the clear celestial height
Thy pure beaming radiance give. 2. Come, thou Father of the poor,
Come with treasures which endure;
Come, thou light of all that live! 3. Thou, of all consolers best,
Thou, the soul's delightful guest,
Dost refreshing peace bestow. 4. Thou in toil art comfort sweet;
Pleasant coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe. 5. Light immortal, light divine,
Visit thou these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill: | 6. If thou take thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay;
All his good is turned to ill. 7. Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away: 8. Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray. 9. Thou, on us who evermore
Thee confess and thee adore,
With thy sevenfold gifts descend: 10. Give us comfort when we die;
Give us life with thee on high;
Give us joys that never end. |
