More than 5,000 Catholics have gathered in Melbourne for the Corpus Christi procession, the annual public witness to faith that marks the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Worshippers thronged the city streets in prayer, song and adoration, as the Eucharist was carried from St Patrick's Cathedral to Federation Square as a sign of Christ's presence among his people.

Inside St Patrick's Cathedral, the celebration began with exposition and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The liturgy featured hymns including St Thomas Aquinas' 'O Salutaris Hostia' and 'Pange Lingua Gloriosi'. The great Catholic thinker and poet was commissioned by Pope Urban IV in the 13th century to write the liturgy for the feast day, and St Thomas Aquinas is credited with providing the language of devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

In his homily, Archbishop Peter A Comensoli reflected on the Eucharist as the heart of Christian belief and the source of mission. 'At this moment, we pause before the great mystery at the centre of our faith, the gift of the Blessed Eucharist,' he said. 'Here, the Body and Blood of Christ, his flesh, is given to us for the life of the world.'

He said the procession was a way to carry Christ into places marked by struggle and need. 'We carry the Blessed Eucharist through the streets, because Christ desires to enter every heart and every place, especially those marked by anxiety, suffering and the wounds that we carry,' he said. He also urged the faithful to see the procession as a public act of hope: 'Come, let us witness publicly to the hope that brings healing and life.'

That public witness to faith in the city began as a bagpiper led the crowd down MacArthur Street to the tune of 'Amazing Grace'. This year's procession travelled down Collins Street and into Swanston Street, passing several iconic landmarks including the Melbourne Town Hall and Flinders Street Station before entering Federation Square. The streets filled with the faithful during the 2026 Corpus Christi Procession.

The Eucharistic procession was headed by the Knights and Dames of the Holy Sepulchre and the Knights and Dames of the Order of Malta, while the monstrance carrying the Blessed Sacrament was lifted by Archbishop Comensoli, Auxiliary Bishops Martin Ashe and Thinh Nguyen, Monsignor Stuart Hall and Fr Joshua McDermid.

The procession made several stops for prayer and singing, as is customary. The sight of thousands of people processing along the tram tracks turned heads all the way down Collins Street. Pedestrians who showed an interest were offered cards carrying the message, 'You are not alone. God walks with you', alongside a QR code inviting further engagement with the faith—in keeping with the public and invitational expression of Catholic belief that coloured the procession.

CATHOLIC MISSION CHURCH APPEAL

Propagation of the Faith

This Weekend 13 - 14 June 2026

There will be a special collection next weekend. Envelopes are in the pews for those wishing to donate via Credit Card.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL CONFERENCE WINTER APPEAL

This weekend SVDP will be conducting their Annual Winter Appeal. We thank you on behalf of the people we help for the weekly grocery donations we receive and the cash donations in the Poor Box. These go a long way in the assistance we give to people, officially known now as our 'companions'! We have however, run low on stored supplies of the food stuffs which we are often asked for. There is a list on the foyer table of the items most in need, and we are asking particularly for donations of items on this list or anything else you may think could be needed, or useful, for our companions.

Thank you again on behalf of those we assist for your generosity.

Blessings, Mt Waverley SVDP Conference.

CARPARK SUNDAY 21st June, 10.00am MASS

Next Sunday, 21st June at the 10.00am Mass we are celebrating the Sacrament of First Eucharist for the children in our Primary School and Sacramental Classes.

There will be a larger than normal attendance and therefore less car park. May we ask that you are mindful of this and if the 8:30am attendees can exit as soon as possible after the Mass to avoid congestion.

This weekend we warmly welcome into our Catholic faith, through the Sacrament of Baptism.

Synodality prevents isolation

When leaders and communities walk together, no one carries the burden alone. Synodality builds shared responsibility.

Synodality and courage

Listening honestly may reveal uncomfortable truths. Synodality requires courage to face them with faith.

Synodality is a long journey

A Synod is not a one-time event. Synodality is a way of life that unfolds over time.

Synodality and renewal

Renewal does not come from programs alone but from transformed relationships. Synodality nurtures those relationships.

This week, you are invited to partner with Catholic Mission and the Church in Malawi as we support families rebuilding after devastating floods and help children access education close to home. Through projects like St Peter's Nyamikuta Primary School, the Church is creating a place where children can learn, be nourished, and grow with dignity, regardless of their background or beliefs. As we celebrate 100 years of World Mission Day, we are reminded by Pope Leo XIV that we are 'One in Christ, United in Mission'. Join with us in celebration and action by supporting this work with a compassionate gift. Use the provided appeal envelope, scan the QR code, or visit catholicmission.org.au/unity to make a difference today.
